

2018 THAILAND DEVELOPMENT

Expression of Interest

Disability Sports Australia (DSA) is calling for Expressions of Interest for wheelchair rugby players wishing to participate in an invitational development tournament in Thailand in November 2018.

This is an opportunity for both national and state based players to participate in a regional development tournament and build international experience.

DSA, as the governing body for wheelchair rugby in Australia, is looking to send a team to this tournament.

DSA received this opportunity from IWRF Development Commission on Tuesday, 2 October 2018.

Event Details

Event Dates: Friday, 9 – Thursday, 15 November 2018

Arrival: Friday, 9 November 2018

Competition and Clinic Dates: Saturday, 10 – Wednesday, 14 November 2018

Departure: Thursday, 15 November 2018

Venue: Thai Paralympic Training venue, Suphanburi (one hour from Bangkok)

Clinics for Classifiers, Referees and Coaches will be run on 10 and 11 November.

Who can apply?

To apply for this opportunity, players must:

- Be a current state or national player who is eligible to compete under the IWRF classification system.
- Be able to self-fund their entry fee

Selection Process

Once all EOI's have been received, selection for the tournament will begin. Selection will aim to support both state and national development. Consideration will be made in order to field an on court 8 classification point team.

Selection will be conducted by Disability Sport Australia in consultation with Australian Head Coach, Brad Dubberley.
